

Health Bill for Aged Approved By Committee

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate Finance Committee approved today the bill establishing a broad health care program for persons over 65 and raising Social Security payments for 20 million Americans. The 12-5 vote sent the $6-billion bill to the Senate floor for expected passage in July. It was the first time the committee had been willing to approve a health care for the aged program tied into the Social Security system.

Last year it rejected such a move 11-6. The committee made numerous changes in the bill passed April 8 by the House and strongly endorsed by President Johnson.

But it retained the major framework, including these two new programs designed to take care of most of the medical and hospital costs of the 19 million persons 65 and over:

A basic plan financed under Social Security covering hospitalization, posthospital nursing home care, out-patient hospital diagnostic services, and post-hospital home health visits.

A voluntary, supplemental insurance plan covering doctors' fees for services at home, at the office or in a hospital, as well as some additional services.

The committee action came as the House of Delegates of the American Medical Association approached a showdown on whether to urge fellow physicians to boycott Medicare or to delay a decision.

Pending in the New York meeting were proposals asking in one way or another that doctors not participate in government health plans.

A compromise awaiting action would postpone the decision until after the congressional adjournment of the program is decided.

In addition to the health care provisions, the bill approved by the Senate committee would make numerous changes in the present Social Security system.

Most important is a 7 per cent increase in retirement, disability and survivor benefits retroactive to Jan. 1 this year.

The maximum retirement payment for a person going on the rolls now would be boosted to $135.90 a month compared with the present $127. The minimum would go up from $40 to $44.

The bill will bring an increase in Social Security taxes next year to about $3 billion as compared with 1965 or of $2.5 billion as compared with what present law would yield in 1966. The increase is needed to finance both the higher Social Security payments and the basic health plan.

The missiles are en route to Burley.

Guard Units Have Problem In Kentucky

In the first week of training, the 1st Squadron of the 116th Armed Cavalry, Idaho National Guard, stationed in Ft. Knox, Ky., had many unanticipated problems.

Much of the equipment received needed repair and, as the National Guard has only two weeks to train, the men lost valuable training time.

One of the biggest adjustments the men had to make was to the terrain. The Idaho National Guard for the past 12 years has trained in a desert region outside of Gowen Field in Boise. The Kentucky region is heavily forested and is requiring new tactical planning.

The first week of the training consisted mostly of platoon level testing. According to Capt. James Cobb and Capt. Russell Johnson, the chief umpires for the platoon tests, all platoons tested performed with at least satisfactory scores.

Many platoons which could have scored superior scores in desert terrain found the jungle tactics too much for them.

Last Saturday afternoon and Sunday some of the men toured Louisville and surrounding communities in Kentucky. Others stayed on the post, enjoying its facilities and trying to catch up on their rest.

Last week the 1st Squadron left the barracks area of Ft. Knox for a field bivouac area. The training for the second week has consisted of field firing of all crew-served weapons. The squadron will arrive back at Gowen Field, Boise, Sunday.

U.S. Space Program Outlined By Air Force Men at Banquet

Approximately 100 persons attended a banquet Wednesday at the American Legion Hall, sponsored by the Twin Falls Lions Club, highlighting a United States Air Force University presentation team.

Warren B. Murphy, past president of the Idaho Air Force Association, introduced Lt. Col. Richard B. Olney, Maj. James A. Wall and Capt. Daniel Hoskins who presented a 90-minute lecture on the national space program.

The men, working out of the Air University, located at Maxwell Air Force Base, Alabama, have visited 46 states and talked to 12 million people, gathering and presenting information about the aerospace accomplish-

SLIGHT DAMAGE, except for broken windows, resulted from this fire at 12:30 a.m. Thursday in the rear of Cain's Furniture and Appliance warehouse, in the alley behind the 100 block of Main Avenue North. The fire started from unknown causes in a pile of cardboard cartons and was extinguished before it spread. Three trucks from the Twin Falls Fire Department were dispatched to the scene. Filer $5,000 Theft Probed by Officers

FILER — Twin Falls County sheriff's officers and Filer police Thursday were investigating theft of an estimated $5,000 in merchandise at the Sheridan Building and Supply Co., Filer. The burglary was discovered Wednesday morning by Russell Sheridan Jr., when he opened the store, but the theft was not immediately apparent because only every other gun was taken from the racks in the main show room, officers said. A small arsenal of firearms was included in the theft, in addition to a typewriter and other items of office equipment.

The burglars gained entrance to the lumberyard by cutting a lock off the gate, apparently using a pair of bolt cutters. Then they forced open a back door to a storeroom, where most of the guns were taken, and pried open the door to an office where they took the office equipment.

Sixty-six guns were taken, ranging from .22 caliber pistols to high-powered hunting rifles and in price from a $169.95 Winchester shotgun to a $24 air pistol.

Total value of all the goods taken was placed by Russell Sheridan Sr., at more than $5,000.

Twin Falls County Sheriff James Benjamin investigated the burglary and was assisted by an FBI agent. The investigation is continuing.

Johnson Will Visit Truman In Kansas City

WASHINGTON (AP) — The White House announced today that President Johnson will spend tonight in Kansas City and have breakfast Friday with former President Harry S. Truman.

The fact that Johnson planned to stop off in Kansas City en route to San Francisco where he will address the 20th anniversary session of the United Nations Friday, became known Wednesday but the White House confirmed it for the first time today.

A spokesman for the National Aeronautics and Space Administration (NASA) said at least 3,000 space construction workers were honoring picket lines thrown up by the International Alliance of Theatrical and Stage Employees Union.

Noises

RICHMOND, Va. (AP) — An 8-year-old Palomino police horse named Ringo is for sale by the city. The horse can't stand city noises.

"We've tried for six months to get him used to the big trucks and cement mixers and things downtown," said Lt. H. W. Chadwick. "But Ringo just doesn't go for city life."

Relations between France and her former colony have grown increasingly strained since President Charles de Gaulle began outspoken opposition to American participation in the war against the Viet Cong and advocacy of a negotiated settlement neutralizing South and North Viet Nam.

Viet Nam was once one of the three French Indochinese states along with Laos and Cambodia. U.S. jet bombers struck north of the "Hanoi line" again today to blast a North Vietnamese ammunition depot and army barracks and had brief visual contact with two Communist MiG-17s.

Tax Leader To Speak at Luncheon

State Rep. Arvil Millar will be the featured speaker at a noon luncheon Tuesday in the American Legion Hall.

Douglas Kramer, vice president of the Twin Falls Chamber of Commerce, said the luncheon will follow a sales tax clinic.

Millar's topic will be "Why the sales tax?"

Millar, as chairman of the House Revenue and Taxation Committee, had the responsibility of securing enough money to finance the cost of Idaho's state government during the coming biennium.

Millar currently is serving his fifth term in the House and he has been on the tax writing committee since his first term.

He is a member of the Health and Welfare Committee, has served as vice-chairman of the Idaho Children's Commission and, while a member of the Legislative Council, arranged for the purchase of the House's new electronic voting machine.

Millar is a member of Kwanis, Chamber of Commerce, LDS Church and a charter member of the Farm Bureau Federation.

He is engaged in a diversified agricultural operation near

ART GALLERY

WASHINGTON (AP) — The old U.S. Court of Claims building across from the White House will be renovated and turned into a government art gallery.

The real question is not whether we are willing to send another 21,000 troops to Viet Nam to help the South Vietnamese during this summer's monsoon rains," Javits said. "It is whether we are prepared to send some hundreds of thousands of our troops into combat as we did in Korea, if necessary for it may become necessary."

down of 12 actual, typical 1964 tax returns, compared to what they would be under the 1965 tax law, accompanies this story.

SHOSHONE — Preparations are under way for the coming fire season in the Shoshone district of the Bureau of Land Management.

According to William T. Mabbutt, district manager, the late spring rains combined with cool weather have retarded the curing of range grasses. However, as the result of the moist spring conditions, fuel volume is generally above normal. If present conditions persist, the district faces a bad fire season.

Man-caused fires are still the number one fire problem throughout Idaho. Seventy to 80 per cent of all fires in this area are man-caused, Mabbutt notes.

tax dollar isn't as much as you might have been expected. To show what might be expected, the state income tax office selected several actual 1964 tax returns, picked at random as typical for certain income brackets.

under the same conditions and with the same income and deductions would pay a total Idaho income tax of $49.65, or a net decrease of $49.96 or 50 per cent for last year's tax.

This year the family would pay $60 plus 5 per cent of income excess over $2,000. In addition, the family would be allowed the $10 credit for each exemption, or a total of $30 credit.

The decrease in total tax comes from two main sources.

First, the sales tax law provides a $10 credit for each exemption claimed. Secondly, the percentages in the tax computation schedules have been reduced.

In the example already used, the family with three exemptions and a taxable income of 72,922.99 paid $68 plus 5.5 per cent of the excess over $2,000.

Lawmakers Meet to Study Constitution

BOISE (AP) — A 15-member commission was summoned to an afternoon meeting Thursday with the ultimate goal the revision of Idaho's 75-year-old state constitution. Gov. Robert E. Smylie asked the group authorized by the 1965 Legislature, to meet in his office at 2 p.m. The governor said he would meet briefly with the commission, which then will move to another room in the Statehouse for its organizing session. Creation of the commission represents a part of the constitutional revision program recommended to the legislature by the governor. He suggested that the lawmakers approve a resolution which would have put on the general election ballot in November, 1966, the question of whether a constitutional convention should be called.

The legislature approved only creation of the commission, instructing it to study the constitutional changes needed and recommended to the 1967 legislature what further steps should be taken.

Smylie's original proposal would have speeded up the process.

Of the 15 members of the commission, five each were appointed by the governor, the chief justice and the Legislative Council. They will elect their own chairman and vice chairman.

Reception to Honor Late Senator Set

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Idaho State Society of Washington announced today it will sponsor a reception June 29 marking the 100th anniversary of the birth of the late U. S. Sen. William E. Borah of Idaho.

The reception will be held in the Capitol, only a short distance from the Senate floor where Borah became known as "the Lion of Idaho" during the 33 years he served in the Senate. He was chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee from 1920 to 1933.

Wade B. Fleetwood, society president, said Idaho Gov. Robert E. Smylie will send a wreath to be placed at the Borah statue in the Capitol. Idaho's two senators, Frank Church, Democrat, and Len Jordan, Republican, will speak during the brief ceremonies.

Conferees Agree On Amendment For Succession

WASHINGTON (AP) — House and Senate conferees finally have agreed on a constitutional amendment for the determination of presidential disability and succession.

A deadlock that persisted for two months and threatened to kill the proposal finally was resolved Wednesday night, and prompt approval of the final version by both House and Senate is expected.

The agreement reached by the conferees would give Congress 21 days to decide the issue when the vice president contests the right of a once disabled president to resume office. The House had fixed a 10-day limit; the Senate had set no limit.

BLM Preparing for Fire Season in Shoshone Area

SHOSHONE — Preparations are under way for the coming fire season in the Shoshone district of the Bureau of Land Management.

Subsequent fires escape from private property onto federal lands resulting in large expenditures of funds to suppress them.

The closed fire season, as forecast by Gov. Robert Smylie, is for May 10 through Oct. 20, during which time anyone wishing to burn on private land must obtain a permit.

Anyone wishing to burn within Shoshone district must contact the Bureau of Land Management.

Area Scouts Training at Special Camp

All phases of junior leadership training are being taught to participating scouts at Camp Bradley, during the Dan Beard Ranger Training Camp. Bobby Bopp, council coordinator, announced Thursday.

The training program will teach the scouts how to run patrol meetings, troop meetings and campfire programs, and other phases of scout leadership.

According to Bopp, the scouts will participate in an overnight encampment, including a hike to the camp area, setting up of camp equipment and cooking their own meals.

"It's really going to be an experience for these boys," Bopp asserted, "and this encampment is the first that we know in the West, except for the Seattle council, which has a similar program."

Each scout completing the training will receive a special neckerchief with the Dan Beard Ranger Training Insignia embroidered on it.

Scoutmaster for the encampment is Lloyd Smith, Hailey, who has had 43 years of scouting experience.

Assistant scoutmasters are Fred Club, Jerome, and Ralph Harris, Twin Falls.

The leaders all are Wood Badge Training scouts and all proficient in the skills of teaching scouting to the youngsters, Bopp noted.

Also assisting is Ed Boyd, Southside district executive.

The one-week event will conclude Saturday.

Geneva Talk Dates Asked Of Soviets

WASHINGTON (AP) — The United States has asked the Soviet Union to agree to a date at the earliest possible time for reopening 17-nation disarmament talks at Geneva aimed at negotiating an expanded nuclear test-ban treaty and an agreement to halt the spread of nuclear weapons.

Administration officials, awaiting a Soviet reply, said they see little prospect of any real progress in either of these fields in the near future. In their view the whole range of U.S.-Soviet relations is more or less paralyzed by the Vietnamese war situation.

The request for agreement on an early date to start up the disarmament talks again was made by U.S. disarmament policy chief William C. Foster in New York a week ago to Soviet disarmament expert Semyon K. Tsarapkin. It was the latest of a number of U.S. efforts to reopen disarmament negotiations. Tsarapkin reportedly said he would have to refer the matter to Moscow.

Fresh attention was focused on the nuclear proliferation problem Wednesday in a Senate speech by Sen. Robert F. Kennedy, D-N.Y., who called on President Johnson to make non-proliferation "a central priority of American policy."

SYNOPSIS AND AGRICULTURAL SUMMARY
The cold front that was on the Washington-Oregon coast yesterday morning has moved as far eastward as Western Oregon, the lower Malheur Valley of Oregon and across Northern Idaho into Western Montana. Higher pressure at the surface and aloft is causing this front to remain rather stationary for the present. However, a weak low aloft is moving into the Intermountain Region from off the Southern California coast and will be an aid in moving this front eastward this afternoon and evening. No large amounts of moisture are being brought up from the Pacific in association with the low aloft, but moisture from the Southern Rockies is moving along the west slopes of the Divide.

The chance for showers or thundershowers continues for today in the valleys of Southern Idaho with only light amounts expected. Partly cloudy skies are forecast in much of Magic Valley for Friday.

Maximum temperatures today and Friday will be cooler, with near normal temperatures today and slightly below normal temperatures on Friday. Highs today will range in the upper 70s to upper 80s and on Friday in the mid 70s to mid 80s. Low temperatures tonight will be in the upper 40s into the 50s.

From one to as much as nine degrees warming occurred across Southern Idaho yesterday. Greatest warming occurred at Twin Falls where the temperature reached 95 degrees, but King Hill reported the highest maximum temperature yesterday with 99 degrees.

Possibly some delays in haying will occur in parts of South-central Idaho today. Delays to other farm activities will be slight to none at all into Saturday.

Wooing Tourists

The Twin Falls Chamber of Commerce continues to operate its information booth at Perrine Memorial Bridge, a service that has proved popular with tourists for two good reasons—it's informative and free. Says Ray Rostrom, secretary-manager of the Chamber, "We have received very favorable comment about the booth and the board decided to continue its operation."

There's another service to tourists that is increasing in popularity although it doesn't receive so much attention. With expanding ownership of vacation trailers, more tourists look for a suitable place to spend a night. They find one such place at Shoshone Falls where the city maintains a rather extensive and unusual park. And many evenings, residents will spot one or two trailers in the parking area at Perrine Memorial Bridge—where the Chamber of Commerce maintains its tourist information booth. Usually there's a trailer or camper in the desert north of the bridge, too.

Here's another possibility for a tourist service that would prove quite popular. Perhaps the Chamber of Commerce or city could mark off the parking area at the Perrine Bridge to provide free overnight parking for several trailers or campers. Or the city might develop an area at Shoshone Falls for that purpose. For the most part, such a development would not conflict with any commercial enterprise because trailer owners who would use the facility would be prone to just stop alongside the road someplace.

An overnight trailer park at Shoshone Falls probably would have maximum use and would serve to stamp Twin Falls indelibly in the minds of all who stopped there. Although many residents seem to be unaware of it, Shoshone Falls is an impressive place, even without water tumbling over the famed falls.

There's another good reason why Twin Falls should be interested in developing an overnight trailer parking facility. The Interstate program is going to result in many tourists bypassing Twin Falls.

It will take something impressive to entice many tourists to leave the Interstate highway to visit Twin Falls. An overnight trailer park at Shoshone Falls would be one possibility. If the plan has any merit, work should be started on it without too much delay. When the Interstate highway is completed north of Snake River, Twin Falls will see precious little of the east-west tourist traffic.

NEGLIGENCE

In recent months, there has been considerable publicity about firearms and their role in U.S. crime. It's mostly part of the general hysteria following the assassination of President John F. Kennedy. Naturally, Americans who own firearms and use them in the proper way have come to resent the implication that guns are responsible for crime. It's inescapable that a gun is an inanimate object and incapable of committing a crime or doing anything else. Crimes are committed by people, not firearms or any other inanimate object.

However, gun owners should be increasingly aware of their responsibility to make certain their firearms aren't involved in anything that would serve to add to the general unthinking clamor for gun controls, controls that probably wouldn't accomplish the aims expressed by those responsible for regulations. Along this line, every gun owner should make certain his guns are kept in a place where they won't be accessible to irresponsible persons or children.

A recent incident in Twin Falls will serve to illustrate the point. A 6-year-old boy was wounded in the foot when a shotgun discharged while youngsters struggled over possession of the loaded weapon. The three youngsters involved were 6, 5 and 11 years of age. The oldest of the youngsters near the scene was only 12. News stories didn't specify if the shotgun was loaded by the owner and left where children could find it or if the children loaded the gun. Actually, it makes no difference.

One of the first rules of gun safety is never to keep a loaded weapon in the house. It's also a common precaution to keep firearms and ammunition in separate places with ammunition under lock if possible. These are reasonable and sensible precautions that should be practiced by all owners of firearms. There's the initial concern for the safety of children and others, but there's also a long-range factor that should be considered.

If firearms continue to be involved in accidents such as the one in which the 6-year-old boy was wounded, it can only mean there will be increased demands for gun controls. It's to the best interests of those who own firearms to make certain their guns aren't involved in accidents or other incidents that would serve to mould public opinion in favor of more controls, perhaps even registration.

NATIONAL WHIRLIGIG

BY ANDREW TULLY

WASHINGTON—McGeorge Bundy is unlikely to become the pin-up boy of any group save that portion of the citizenry which sees merit in rudeness. But he is doing a necessary job well; he is an intelligent and mentally muscular whipping boy for Lyndon Johnson's policies in Viet Nam and Santo Domingo.

Of Bundy personally, it is possible only to damn him with faint praise. His attitude toward the casual dropper-in, especially if he suspects his caller's intellectual credentials, is roughly that of a Bourbon encountering a particularly grubby peasant. He not only does not suffer fools gladly; he makes it plain it is an imposition on his time to suffer them sadly.

KENNEDY'S OPINION—Even Jack Kennedy, who hired him in 1961 as a kind of built-in secretary of state during the New Frontier's remodeling of the White House, feigned awe of the man. "I'm glad Bundy's on my side," Kennedy once told this reporter. Then added, "I'm glad he's on my side and I'm boss."

Lyndon Johnson, no scholar but a professional politician who appreciates pros in other fields, undoubtedly agrees. As vice president or majority leader, Johnson might have found McGeorge Bundy looking down on him, but as President he has the status needed to deal with this one-time Harvard Whiz Kid. For Bundy has respect for power and for men who know how to use it—that is, for those who use power as he would. Johnson's hard-line in Viet Nam and Santo Domingo is right up the Bundy alley, which explains Bundy's fierce and dedicated loyalty to his new boss.

STALWART AND BRAINS—Johnson, of course, is lucky to have Bundy on his side, and he knows it. With the Groves of Academe in an uproar about the administration's foreign policy, it is nice to have a spokesman for that policy who not only is a former dean of the faculty of arts and sciences at Harvard but who can give the professors as good as he gets in the educated nasty cracks department.

It is not nice, perhaps, but it is fun to scan the correspondence between Bundy and Prof. Anatol Rapoport of the University of Michigan. Since Rapoport obviously did not understand the situation, Bundy concluded, he could not communicate with him. And there was a hint of brass knuckles in his reply to a panel of professors at Washington University in St. Louis who "demanded" that he account for Viet Nam policy. Replied Bundy: "If your letter came to me for grading as a professor of government, I would not be able to give it high marks."

FRONT MAN—Bundy entered the Kennedy administration as one of those wheeler-dealers with a "passion for anonymity," and for a time saw practically nobody except Kennedy and a few selected (by Bundy) VIP's. On the rare occasions when a newsman trapped him and reported the encounter in print, Bundy usually denied ever having laid eyes on the journalist. But under Lyndon Johnson, he has become a kind of advance man, or front, for his boss in foreign affairs. He flies off to Viet Nam and Santo Domingo, appears on television and on public platforms, and scribbles an occasional apology for White House thinking.

From where Lyndon Johnson sits, this is all to the good. The pressure on the White House is always terrific, and every President needs a good man to dispatch to the kitchen when it gets hot. Bundy earns his keep by knowing what he is talking about and by a willingness to slug it out with Johnson's critics. And, as Secretary of State Dean Acheson once remarked, "a man like that is not hired for his bedside manner."

Views of Others

THIS IS CHEATING, TOO

The government has a loan program for financing the college education of "deserving" young people. Under the arrangement, students may borrow $1,000 a year, with the government providing 90 per cent of the loan and the college the remainder. "Deserving" presumably includes the factor of responsibility, the understanding that the recipient stands ready to honor his commitment by repayment of the money after graduation. In qualifying for a loan, he pledges repayment in regular installments over a period of 10 years at three per cent interest.

A story in The Wall Street Journal throws light on how the debtors are honoring their pledges.

Based on information from the United States Office of Education, the story shows that 16.6 per cent of the loan recipients at 1,000 colleges are delinquent in their payments. This compares with a delinquency rate of 1.7 per cent on installment loans by commercial banks.

The government, it appears, does not know the actual number of delinquents since the survey did not cover all of the colleges and universities participating in the aid program. The task of collecting the payments is left to the schools. But tracing the borrowers once they have graduated is, in many cases, impossible. One college bursar noted that he didn't know the addresses of three-fourths of his institution's borrowers.

Failure to discharge the obligation, the widespread inclination to look upon a debt of honor as something to be ignored at the whim of the debtor perhaps is not a surprising trait among so many of the college generation. It is not surprising, that is, in view of recent reports on the extent of academic cheating on the campuses. Failure to repay a contracted debt is cheating as flagrant as cribbing on an examination. It is another commentary on the moral fiber of a large element of those going to college and of the family and community backgrounds from which they derive ideas of ethical values. It helps to explain cheating scandals such as that exposed at the Air Force Academy.—Roanoke (Va.) Times.

FISH STORY

A 38-year-old Chicago woman is suing for divorce because her husband spent nearly $2,500 on tropical fish and equipment. The wife claims she is left with only her bedroom and a part of the kitchen where she can get away from the fish.

When the wife reached the end of her patience, there were six fish-filled tanks, ranging in capacity from five to twenty gallons, in the apartment, and many of her pots and pans were filled with fish. There were also three fishbowls containing snails, and the husband was getting ready to add a 50-gallon tank.

Along with the divorce, the wife asked child support and the household furnishings.

Did she want the fish, containers and equipment? No tanks.—St. Thomas (Ont.) Times-Journal.

LEANING TOWER OF PISA

The Leaning Tower of Pisa is leaning a little more—and gale force winds might blow it down. The tower began leaning while it was being built in 1174; now it's 16 feet off center.

The tower has scientists and government officials alike scratching their heads, wondering what to do.

Suggestions, anyone?—Atlanta Times.

"Fire!"

MARQUIS CHILDS WRITES ON WASHINGTON

WASHINGTON—The career of Bernard Mannes Baruch was, over the years, very great. One reason was his generosity. Behind the imposing facade he presented to senators and committees and on the steps of the White House was the skill of an actor who, if he had chosen to go on the stage, as one of his brothers did, would have been the greatest of his time.

In relaxed moments he enjoyed doing imitations of men he had known in public life. A classic, as he acted it out, was of a senator of huge girth irately trying to get into an upper berth. Baruch would do the voices, the senator, the Pullman porter, the conductor—with the gestures.

His height and his imposing presence contributed greatly to the impression he made on everyone he met. Even after he had become almost totally deaf—a deafness which his hearing aid modified but little—he was a formidable witness in the many hearings at which he appeared over the years. There were those who felt his deafness was a positive help, since he could never hear a question he did not want to be bothered with.

Professional economists would rail at his conventional views on balancing the budget and holding down inflation. But while they would compete with him in terms of professional opinion they could never touch him in putting across a viewpoint.

He had a legion of friends in the press who found him a fascinating repository of events past and present. Whatever the crisis he always presented a front of serene confidence—confidence in his prescription if only the man in power would turn to him to find a way out of the trouble and confidence in the country. He liked to tell witty stories about his experience in Paris with Woodrow Wilson during the Versailles Conference.

His personality played a large part in the highly favorable press he almost always got. His critics, who were fond of calling him privately an old fraud, found this baffling and infuriating.

At one point, Baruch had on his payroll a long-time associate as a public relations adviser. His friends remarked that this service was about as superfluous as anything could be, since he needed no advice in this field. His occasional salty cynicism came out when he once remarked of this associate: "I'm afraid he's living beyond my means."

Nowhere did the man and the environment meet so perfectly as on his 50,000-acre South Carolina estate, Hobcaw Barony. It was a rare privilege to be invited to Hobcaw where Baruch presided with the antebellum courtesy and kindness of the pre-Civil War past he treasured. This reporter has a vivid memory of sitting with him as he talked in a small garden enclosure at Hobcaw with several venerable Negroes from the nearby town. In this warmhearted exchange time stood still with the benevolent master of the plantation counselling his admiring dependents.

Evening at Hobcaw often meant small-stake roulette. Baruch was the croupier, doing a perfect imitation of a Monte Carlo croupier calling in French for the end of the play as the wheel started to spin. In his day there was no one quite like him. And, given the extraordinary discipline he applied to a personality with a wide range, it is unlikely there will be again in our narrower and more conformist age.

The range of pets in this military theater is wide. It includes dogs, cats, lizards, monkeys, pigs, parrots, goats, and a small horse named Harry. The survival chances of the pigs is not rated very high. Most are expected to end up at a barbecue with apples in their mouths.

Recently, hard-working Seabees constructing a Marine air-strip at Chu Lai received a mascot from heaven. It was a small, young honey bear which was dropped by a supply ship in its own parachute—and landed safe but frightened.

Poor Man's Plato

By HAL BOYLE

Remember the "Dear John"

letters of World War II?

They were the notes from home which broke the melancholy news to a soldier at the front that his girl friend had brown off their romance or his wife had run off with the milkman.

Well, John C. Golueke, an Air Force staff sergeant from Kansas City, Mo., gets a different sort of missive from his wife,

Mary. She calls them "Dear John" books.

They are a hand-stapled collection of cartoons, quips by Mary, and notes from their friends.

lovely, feminine almond-shaped eyes, and beneath it this notation: "Poison. Keep this out of reach of John."

There are many poisonous snakes in Viet Nam, but I have yet to hear of an American death being caused by them.

You hear much talk of king cobras and 14-foot pythons. But the snake the troops fear most is the banded krait. It is known as "the fifth-step snake."

"They call it that," a Marine private assured me, "because its poison is so deadly that if you start to run after it bites you, you die as you take your fifth step."

A more common peril is the local beer here, which is being downed in huge quantities because of a shortage of American beer. It is sometimes followed by a temporary ailment known as "the Saigon quick-step."

Someone started a rumor that the Viet Cong had put formaldehyde in one supply, recapped the bottles, and distributed them in bars.

The rumor has had no effect on the sale of the beer. Shaking the sweat from his forehead,

one corporal said as he hoisted

a bottle:

"What's a little formaldehyde? I'd rather be embalmed than die of thirst in this heat."

Men away from their loved ones turn to pets for consolation.

HAMMING IT UP to publicize selection of "Music Man" as the next musical comedy to be presented by the Dilettante Group of Magic Valley is this "would-be" barbershop quartet.

"Music Man" Is Chosen as Next Dilettante Production

Meredith Willson's "Music Man" has been selected by the Dilettante Group of Magic Valley as its next musical comedy production.

The announcement was made Thursday morning by the board of directors.

Del Slaughter again will be musical director for the show. Other directors will be announced.

Auditions for the production will be held this fall, with dates to be announced. The show will be presented next March in the Filer High School Auditorium.

Philip Keeler, choreographer from the University of Utah, will be in Twin Falls the first two weeks in August to head a workshop for the Dilettante Group, and any member who has participated in a past show in any way is urged to attend. "Music Man" is an all-American story, set in Iowa.

The show was one of the top modern hits on Broadway, starring Robert Preston. Preston also starred in Warner Brothers' motion picture of "Music Man." Willson wrote the music, lyrics and the book for the production. Franklin Lacey assisted him on the story.

Railroad Posts Limitations on Cargo Shipments

OMAHA (AP) — The Union Pacific Railroad announced Wednesday sharp limitations on the handling of less-than-carload shipments of freight.

Starting Aug. 1, the railroad said, shipments of less than 4,000 pounds will not be handled in interstate traffic except between Los Angeles and Las Vegas, Nev., unless the smaller shipments accompany carload shipments. This limitation also will be effective on intrastate traffic in Oregon, Washington and Wyoming. The line plans to extend the limitation to intrastate traffic in other states later.

CLAIM EXPECTED

IDaho FALLS (UPI) — A claim is expected to be filed with the city of Idaho Falls within 10 days on behalf of a 6-year-old girl who lost her arm to a pair of wolves in the city zoo.

Under the city ordinances parents of Stephanie Daniel have until July 6 to file the claim. The child's father, Dale Daniel has said he intends to seek damages from the city.

JUDGING BEGINS

BOISE (AP) — Preliminary judging in the Miss Idaho contest will get underway Thursday night in Boise.

Another round will follow Friday evening during which 10 semi-finalists will be chosen from the 24 contestants for the 1965 beauty and talent crown.

Five finalists will be chosen Saturday night and one will be crowned queen and the others will be named first, second, third and fourth runnerup.

The winner will represent Idaho in the Miss America Contest at Atlantic City in September.

NEW PRESIDENT

MOSCOW (UPI) — Neil Peterson, Pocatello, was elected president of the Idaho State 4-H Wednesday to succeed Ralph Kearns, Pocatello.

Peterson defeated Randy Butler, Minidoka, in the election at the annual 4-H Club Congress at the University of Idaho.

Critical SEASON

BOISE (UPI) — Chet Putnam, Boise fire director for the Bureau of Land Management, Thursday predicted a critical fire season because of a late, cool spring which produced a lot of vegetation.

Putnam said the critical point of the fire season would be late this year because of a high content of snowpack in high country.

FEATURED SPEAKER

BOISE (AP) — William J. Hiltz, director of the Colorado State Civil Service Commission, will be featured speaker at the annual meeting in Boise of the western region of the Assembly of Governmental Employees.

PAYS TAXES

MC CALL (AP) — Privately owned electric utilities in the Pacific Northwest paid nearly $100 million in taxes last year, more than double that 10 years earlier, a conference was told today.

The volume of electricity they sold also almost doubled.

Colin W. Raff of Butte, Mont., president of the Northwest Electric Light and Power Association, made the statements at the group's accounting and business practices conference. Raff is vice president of Montana Power Co.

Storm Probe Satellite to Be Launched

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP) — The hurricane-hunting Tires 10 satellite is scheduled for launching here next Tuesday as another step toward an operational space weather forecasting system.

The satellite is the first of the Tires series funded by the U.S. Weather Bureau. The first nine, all successful, were funded by the National Aeronautics and Space Administration.

The space agency scheduled the launching during a 45-minute favorable period starting at 1:07 a.m. (EST) Tuesday. During this period the spacecraft power systems would draw maximum initial energy from the sun.

Three Tires satellites are transmitting cloud cover pictures—but the bureau decided to launch Tires 10 at this time to make certain it obtains coverage of the current hurricane season which extends through Oct. 15.

MOVE TO STATION

FAIRFIELD — Mr. and Mrs. Charles Presley and family, Twin Falls, have moved into the assistant ranger's house at the Fairfield Ranger station. Presley has again joined the Forest Service after being engaged in farming and cattle raising. Mrs. Presley is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kast of King Hill and Fairfield.

BIDS CALLED

BOISE (AP) — The Idaho Highway Department asked today for bids to be opened June 29, on the furnishing of aggregate surfacing and cover coat material in stockpiles.

The stockpiles will be adjacent to U.S. highways 93 and 93A in the vicinity of Mackay, Alturas and Russian John Ranger Station in Custer and Blaine Counties.

REPRESENTS IDAHO

BOISE (AP) — State Health Administrator Dr. Terrell O. Carver will represent Idaho in the eighth annual meeting of the Western Council on Mental Health training and research opening Thursday in San Francisco.

Also attending from Idaho will be Dr. Robert S. McKean, director of the department of health's mental retardation and neurology section.

CANDIDATE

MTAIN HOME (AP) — Selection of Staff Sgt. James E. Laurick as the Mountain Home Air Force Base candidate for the Air Forces' "Outstanding Man of the Year" award was announced Thursday.

Laurick, 26, is a member of the Ninth Organizational Maintenance Squadron at the Mountain Home Base. He is a native of Hickory, Pa.

BUILDING DESTROYED

IDaho FALLS (AP) — Fire gutted the building housing the Mackay Miner Wednesday. The fire broke out in a room adjoining the printing office while Ted Hanawalt, publisher, was in the office.

Damage was estimated by Hanawalt at about $8,000 to building and equipment.

BIDS EXPECTED

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Forest Service expects to call for bids about July 1 on construction of an 8.8 mile section of the Nez Perce Pass road in Northern Idaho, Rep. Compton I. White Jr., D - Idaho, said Thursday.

WORTH MONEY

IDaho FALLS (AP) — The Mexican Centavo is not worth a quarter in American money even though its the same size. In fact its only worth 1½ cents in U.S. currency.

But—it has been used successfully to filch $41 in American money from two vending machines at a Laundromat in Idaho Falls.

Troops Are Deployed Near Berlin

BERLIN (AP) — Soviet and East German troops have deployed on both sides of the Elbe River bridge on the Berlin Superhighway but there has been no interference with traffic, Allied military sources said today.

The troops were reported deployed in foxholes dug along the road on both bridge approaches.

"We have not yet been able to draw any conclusions on the purpose of this exercise but we're watching it carefully," one source said.

About 100 troops were seen at the bridge when the deployment began Wednesday night, military sources said.

The Soviets used repairs to the bridge as an excuse to close the 110-mile superhighway linking West Berlin with West Germany in the 1948 Berlin blockade.

Travelers reaching Berlin Wednesday night reported unusual Red trooper movement began along the highway in mid-afternoon. Allied sources said no troop movement were observed this morning.

Reports persisted that civil airline pilots flying through the corridors to Berlin reserved for Western planes have spotted increasing Communist jet activity near their planes.

Modern-Day Mental Institutions Work Against Deadline, but Drugs Help

BLACKFOOT, Idaho (AP) — The idea lingers that a mental hospital is a place with grey walls where screaming or star-gazing patients spend the bulk of their lives.

But the attractive buildings of Idaho State Hospital South in Blackfoot are set on green, well-kept grounds and the hospital discharges 80 per cent of its patients in four months — half of them in 30 days.

"The hospital situation actually works against the patient," said Dr. Cecil G. Stillinger, hospital superintendent.

"If a patient is in a hospital too long he becomes dependent on it and finds it difficult if not impossible to function on the outside."

This is particularly true in schizophrenia, in which patients lose contact with their surroundings and become disoriented, Dr. Stillinger said.

"There seems to be a point in the treatment of the disease," he said, "where the patient begins to slip further into his psychotic condition.

"If this happens, he is going to be with us for long time." The cases in which it does happen have been reduced to about 20 per cent, he said. Advances in therapy, including use of drugs, has led to rapid treatment in most cases.

Stillinger believes the percentage of successful cases will rise with further research and advances in drugs.

"But drugs, for all their value," he said, are not a treatment by themselves."

Tranquillizers, for example, are used to calm overwrought patients so they can respond to other treatment such as analysis, group therapy and work therapy, the superintendent said.

Similarly, he said, anti-depressants can be used to put some patients in a frame of mind more susceptible to treatment. One large group of drugs has effectively erased illusions and visions temporarily in patients, Stillinger said, but even those drugs cannot be considered a treatment in themselves.

The increasing effectiveness of drugs leads Dr. Stillinger to believe that mental illness is often caused by physical disorders, not just by environment.

The drugs, after all, can only change physical conditions — they cannot alter the environmental situation that has produced mental illness.

"We don't know that physical defects cause mental illness," said the superintendent, "we have no proof of it. But it seems logical."

In any case, he said, physical disorders could carry only part of the blame. The patient's environment still must carry the rest.

So the need for psychiatrists, psychologists, social workers and specially trained nurses continues. State Hospital South, like most mental hospitals in the country, is plagued with a shortage of trained personnel.

One reason is that such highly-trained personnel generally prefer the prestige of private practice, Stillinger said. Another is that medical schools are not producing enough trained personnel to meet public needs.

For its average 422 patients, the hospital has one psychiatrist, the consulting service of a private psychiatrist, two psychologists, three psychiatric social workers and five general physicians.

Stillinger hopes the community mental health centers approved by the 1965 Legislature will help relieve the pressure.

The local centers could provide day care for a number of patients now hospitalized at Blackfoot, he said, and in some cases arrest mental illness before it becomes severe enough to require hospitalization.

And they might save money.

The 20 per cent of the patients who spend their lives in institutions cost about $50,000 each, Stillinger said.

A community clinic that could prevent just one such case would pay its own way in most cases for at least a year.

Bill Passed To Reduce Punishment

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate passed and sent to President Johnson today a bill to reduce the penalty against pranksters and jokers who falsely report the presence of bombs in airplanes and other public conveyances.

The measure provides for civil action with a maximum penalty of $1,000 in place of the present law making such offenses a misdemeanor subject to fines up to $1,000 or a year's imprisonment, or both.

Willful offenses still would be subject to a $5,000 fine or five years' imprisonment, or both.

Also passed by the Senate and sent to the White House was another measure recommended by the Justice Department to make interstate travel and transportation in aid of arson a federal offense.

SPRINGFIELD, Mass. (AP) — Michael J. Byrnes, 20, of West Springfield, took direct action when his car broke down.

He picked up a rock and smashed the windows and dented the fenders.

Then he stalked away, abandoning the car which he said "was not good to me anymore."

Neighbors complained and he was charged with breach of peace.

In Springfield District Court Wednesday, Judge Charles D. Sloan continued the case to Dec. 23 to let Byrnes "cool off."

Swim Classes Are Reported For Gooding

GOODING — The summer swimming schedule for the Gooding Municipal Pool has been announced. Ron Watson, a senior at the University of Idaho and a swimming instructor there, will be in charge of the pool this summer.

The first session of Red Cross swimming lessons will begin on Monday and continue to July 9. From 10 a.m. to 11 a.m. Hagerman and Bliss swimmers in all groups will take their lessons; from 11 a.m. to noon the 5 to 7 age group will take lessons as well as the beginners, advanced beginners and intermediates. From 1 p.m. to 2 p.m. Gooding swimmers and advanced swimmers are scheduled, and from 5 p.m. to 7 p.m. the senior lifesaving group.

The second session will run from July 12 to July 23, with all groups from Fairfield to swim from 10 to 11 a.m.

From 11 a.m. to noon the Gooding 5 to 7 age group will swim. Also at this time are the beginners, advanced beginners and intermediates. From 1 p.m. to 2 p.m. will be the adult swimming class, with a minimum of seven students required. The junior lifesaving class will be conducted from 3 p.m. to 7 p.m.

The third session will run from July 26 to Aug. 6, with the Wendell groups scheduled from 10 to 11 a.m. Gooding beginners, advanced beginners and intermediates have lessons from 11 a.m. to noon, and another junior lifesaving class is scheduled for 5 to 7 p.m.

Fees for the regular classes will be $1 and for the 5 to 7 age group, 50 cents. This group has lessons for one week only.

The pool is open to the public from 2 to 5 p.m. and 7 to 9 p.m. each day. Groups may rent the pool for a fee and previous arrangements should be made at the office.

STARTING TRIP TO GERMANY where she will spend the summer as an exchange student is Patricia Ann Hondo, Burley. She holds her camera beside her luggage as she boards a plane in Burley for Salt Lake City on the first leg of her trip. From New York she will travel by ship to Rotterdam and then by train to Stuttgart, Germany, where she will meet the Rudolf Fetzer family, with whom she will live for three months. (Times-News photo)

Burley Girl Will Spend Summer in Germany

BURLEY — Patricia Ann Hondo will leave by airplane Friday from Salt Lake City for New York City en route to Europe as an exchange student.

Miss Hondo is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Hondo, Burley. She has received an International Scholarship from the American Field Service and will spend the summer in Gaeldorf, Germany, with the Rudolf Fetzer family.

Saturday morning she will leave New York City on a Hol-

110 Gooding Persons Go To 4-H Camp

GOODING — There were 110 persons from Gooding County at the 4-H summer camp at Camp Sawtooth. This number included 16 4-H junior leaders and adults.

The full three-day program included afternoon swimming at Ketchum, handicraft classes, making clay articles, nature hikes, recreational games and travel films.

New educational classes were offered a bicycle safety class and first aid, taught by Mrs. Don Frederickson, camp nurse, with special emphasis on mouth-to-mouth resuscitation.

Mike Throckmorton of the Idaho Fish and Game Department, talked on wildlife conservation, showing several stuffed bird specimens and tanned skins of wild animals. A film on the family life of birds completed his presentation.

Evening programs included a get-acquainted party, indoor Olympic games, singing, talent show, camp fire singing and games.

All classes and recreation were taught by county extension personnel, camp nurse and junior leaders.

Adults assisting were Edward Koester and Dale Walton, Gooding county agents; Mrs. William Shane, Gooding county home agent; Ivan Hopkins, Lincoln county agent; Mrs. Frederickson, Mrs. Dave Boring, Janice Taylor and William Shane, all Gooding.

Junior leaders assisting were Valerie Koester, Barbara McCombs, Elaine Trosper, Wally Bodenhofer, Richard Strickland and Carol Robertson, all Gooding; Allen Ravenscroft, Gordon Ravenscroft, Bryan Ravenscroft, all Tuttle; Jeneal Jones, Rita Sellers, Cliff Sellers, Lester Boian, all Wendell; Hanna Akers, Linda Young, both Hagerman, and Virginia Ross, Shoshone.

A drive is now underway to raise $50,000 to build a new 4-H camp near Russian John ranger station. If the goal is reached by the nine participating south Idaho counties, next year 4-H camp will be held at the new site.

Gooding County 4-H clubs are planning various methods to raise their share of the money, which is $6,000.

Bob Kulm, one of the Lynwood merchants, is shown presenting the key to Mrs. J. T. Ricketts of Jerome, Idaho. The drawing was held Saturday, June 19th, on the Lynwood parking lot.

FAIRFIELD — Two sets of scales are under construction in Camas Prairie. The large scales will be capable of weighing truckloads of hay and other produce.

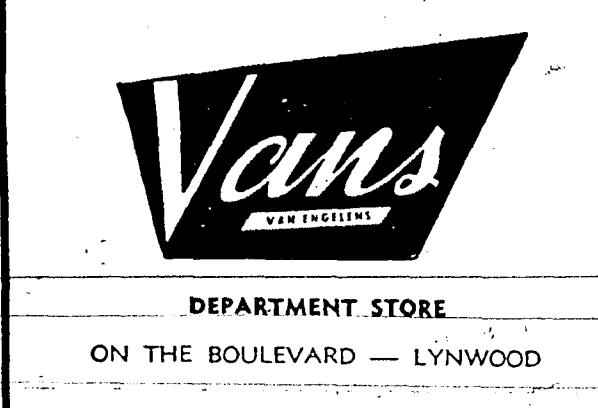

One set of scales is being constructed on the William E. Sweet farm which is the last place before leaving the prairie on the road to Gooding. The other set of scales is being constructed at Hill City on the west end of the prairie.

Hay producers contributed toward the cost of the scales which are being constructed by Marvin Pearson, Gooding contractor.

Club Meets

KING HILL — Thomas Baptie demonstrated the handling and carding of lambs at the Pasadena Valley 4-H Club meeting Tuesday at the William Knox home.

Gooding County 4-H clubs are planning various methods to raise five calves on one cow, and also demonstrated the training of a 6-week-old colt. Mrs. Lee Trail is leader of the club.

MR. AND MRS. CHARLES POWERS

Miss Sfalcin, Powers Wed in Canada Rites

Luginia Sfalcin, granddaughter of the late Domenico Sfalcin and Mrs. Lugia Sfalcin, Fonlanfredda, Italy, was married to Charles H. Powers, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Powers, Twin Falls.

The couple was united in marriage in a double ring ceremony at the Angel Di Merici Church, Windsor, Ontario, Canada. Msgr. J. Rossie officiated at the ceremony.

The church was decorated with yellow and white flowers featuring gladioli, Chrysanthemums and daisies. Mrs. Edward Mazzoli played the traditional wedding music. Teresa Mozzari was soloist.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, Giovanni Sfalcin, London, Ontario, Canada, wore a sheath styled floor-length gown of cream white candlelight satin trimmed with French embroidered lace. The gown featured a jeweled neckline and lace-trimmed elbow-length sleeves. Her lace-trimmed train extended from a bow at the waist. Her French illusion veil was held by a tiara of fresh-cut stephanotis and ivy.

The gown was designed by the bride and made by her mother. She carried a cascade bouquet of white orchids surrounded by a wreath of stephanotis. The bride's only jewelry was a diamond centered gold cross and chain, a gift from the bridegroom.

Maid of honor was Renata Jonusas, Rossville, Mich. Bridesmaids were Dottie Vergara, Detroit; Elizabeth Parkhill, London, and Phyllis Rosenbert, Detroit.

Richard M. Anderson, Toledo, Ohio, was best man. Ushers were Mario Sfalcin, brother of the bride; Eugene Zizza, Detroit, and William Dean, Fulvio Santini, cousin of the bride, was ring bearer.

A formal Italian dinner was served to the 325 guests in the St. Anglea Di Merici Hall following the wedding reception. The tables were decorated with bowls of camellias and Birds of Paradise from the gardens of the bride's aunt in San Mateo, Calif.

The Sandri Italian Orchestra provided music for the reception dinner hour and the dance.

Out-of-town guests attended from California, Idaho, Ohio and the other provinces of Canada.

The newlyweds will reside at 18403 Indiana Ave., Leetrait, where the new Mrs. Powers is completing her senior year at Wayne University and Powers is an attorney in the office of the chief counsel of the Internal Revenue Department.

Rhubarb Salad

3 cups diced fresh rhubarb
½ cup sugar
¼ teaspoon salt

2 3-ounce packages strawberry gelatin or mixed fruit gelatin

2 cups cold water
2 cups finely diced celery
¼ cup lemon juice

Combine rhubarb, sugar and salt in a saucepan. Cook over low heat until rhubarb is tender. Do not stir or add water as the rhubarb makes its own juice.

and pieces should stay whole.

Bring mixture quickly to a boil. Immediately remove from heat and add gelatin, stirring gently until dissolved. Add remaining ingredients. Chill until firm.

Makes five and one-half cups or 10 to 12 side salads.

Suit Filed To Test Wheat Laws

SPOKANE (AP) — A special three-judge panel will meet here Friday to hear testimony in a suit filed by a Benton County farmer to test the constitutionality of parts of the federal wheat program.

The suit was filed in U.S. District Court Feb. 3 by Shirley Moon, Prosser, Wash., as a test case to challenge the constitutionality of the 25-cent per bushel marketing certificate tax imposed on wheat exports. Moon contends the fee is a tax on exports and in violation of the U.S. Constitution which forbids assessment of a tax or duty on articles exported from any state.

The suit, filed against Agriculture Secretary Orville Freeman, is supported financially by the State Farm Bureau, a spokesman said.

The special court will include Judge Frederick G. Hamley, Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals, San Francisco; Judge John C. Bowen, U. S. District Court, Seattle, and Judge Charles L. Powell, U. S. District Court, Spokane.

Moon asks the court to declare the tax unconstitutional and order a refund of a certificate fee he paid Jan. 26 when he shipped 1,848 bushels of wheat from Portland to the Netherlands.

Naylor Kept As Chairman Of Trustees

HANSEN—Lester Naylor was reelected chairman at the reorganizational meeting of the Hansen School Board Monday night at the schoolhouse.

Lee McCoy, a new trustee, was elected vice chairman; Raymond Butler, also a new trustee, was elected clerk and Bryan Harris Jr. was named treasurer. Joseph Froehlich Jr. is the other school board member.

Mrs. Grace Ivie was appointed as the assistant treasurer and was given an increase in salary. She is the school secretary and hot lunch chairman.

Supt. and Mrs. William C. Barnard and family have returned home from Mount Pleasant, Iowa, driving home a new bus for the school, which they picked up there.

Barnard also announced a complete list of faculty members for the coming season. Mrs. Marlese Teasley, Twin Falls, new to the Hansen schools, is the first grade teacher; Mrs. Rachel Myers, second grade; Mrs. Arlene Kofoed, third grade; Mrs. Beverly Hughes, fourth grade; Mrs. June Wilson, fifth grade; Marvin Rose, sixth grade and elementary principal; Julia Hayes, seventh grade, and James Rand, also new, the eighth grade.

Mrs. Martha Hinds will be the new home economics teacher; Mrs. James Rand, the new English teacher; Edwin D. (Ted) Crockett, mathematics; Donald Barton, science; Ronald Kofoed, music; Mrs. Helen Payne, commercial; Alfonso Sanchez, coach and social studies, and Mrs. Barnara LaJeunesse, library.

Utah Man Killed When Car Hits Freight Train

GREEN RIVER, Utah (AP) — Harvey Gaster, 27, of Green River, was killed Wednesday when his car collided with a 60-mile-an-hour Denver and Rio Grande freight train.

The Utah highway patrol said Gaster's car hit the train's first engine unit at a railroad crossing on a road to the Green River Missile Base's Radar Unit, 3½ miles east of Green River.

Gaster was thrown out of the car and into the train's second engine unit. He was alone in the car. The highway patrol said an electric flasher was operating at the crossing.

The patrol said the Utah Department of Financial Responsibility would determine if the death would be added to the state's 1965 traffic toll.

Utah Children Set Four Fires

GRANITE PARK, Utah (AP) — Salt Lake County Firemen battled seven fires Wednesday — four of them set by children playing with matches.

The fire burned parts of a chicken coop, playhouse, barn, hay, grass and three homes.

Firemen said children ignited a blaze that destroyed one end of a chicken coop at a Salt Lake County farm. The firemen estimated damage at $500.

Fire Chief Frank P. Jones said another children-caused fire destroyed a playhouse and damaged a home, causing an estimated $700 in damage.

Comedienne Dies

NEW YORK (UPI) — Mary Boland, blonde comedienne whose career on the Broadway stage and in Hollywood movies spanned more than 60 years, died in her sleep here Wednesday at the age of 80.

LOOKING AT AN OLD state highway gravel pit one-half mile south of Carey, along U. S. Highway 93A, which is 14 feet deep in some places with "sub" water is Richard (Dick) Mallon, owner of the Carey Elevator. Water pumped from the elevator pits flows into the gravel pit and a like amount flows out the other end, so the water in the gravel pit is nearly all from the water table or "sub." Potholes are thick in the gravel pit and Carey youngsters are having fun swimming in the many big holes and gravel pits filled with water. (Times-News photo)

Good Water Year at Carey Brings Troubles From 'Sub'

By LORRAINE DAVIS,
Times-News Reporter

CAREY—The high water table in the Carey area has started to recede. It has been going down an inch or two every day.

Sunday was the last day water in the ground rose, according to most reports. This has been a big water year here and farmers have had no worry about lack of water.

However, the great amount of water has caused the water table or "sub" to raise very high. W. C. Eldredge, who has lived in Carey nearly all his life, said, "This is the worst we have ever had. I can remember back to 1896 and I have seen the sub bad—up to two or two and one-half feet of the surface—but this year the sub has been higher than I have ever seen it."

Eldredge, who is watermaster for the Carey Valley Reservoir Co., which operates Fish Creek Reservoir, reported that the water table is so high in the area below Fish Creek Reservoir that water is standing on top of the ground in some places.

Eldredge said he shut water out of a ditch on the Jess Farnsworth farm four miles northeast of town and in a one-half mile distance 25 inches of water seeped into the ditch.

The Lee Peterson farm, Gilbert Cross farm, Welsh place operated by Leon Peck, and Hot Springs Ranch are farms located from two miles to eight miles northeast of Carey where the sub has given farmers trouble. A tractor or vehicle cannot be driven over the saturated ground.

Water has seeped into majority of the basements, with an average depth of four feet of water. Water was three feet deep in the basement of Mr. and Mrs. Chester Kelly's home.

This is the first time water has come in their basement since 1947 when the home was built. Some basements get some water in nearly every year and the owners expect it after years of experience.

Many inconveniences have been caused by the high water table. Water heaters, furnaces and other large appliances, furniture and many household articles have been damaged.

If not ruined the large appliances were unable to be operated because of the danger of a combination of electricity and water.

Some private wells in Carey were contaminated and water had to be disinfected before being used.

Charley Haskell, one-half mile southwest of town, pumped all of the water out of his basement and then the water pressure underneath started to push up the cement floor until he shut the pump off and let water back in the basement to equalize the pressure.

Richard (Dick) Mallon, owner of the Carey Elevator, stated that he has had two submersible automatic pumps running two big streams since about May 17. The platform truck scales at the elevator will not work if water gets on the beams so water is continually pumped out of the scale pit.

Water would be nine feet deep in the grain dump pit if it was not pumped out. Mallon says the sub is highest since 1955 when the Carey Elevator was built.

Swimming in the big holes and gravel pits that have filled with water has been a delightful summer's pastime for many Carey youngsters, so there is a bright side to the "sub story."

Government To Explore Sea Bottom

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Government announced Wednesday plans to explore a new use for nuclear technology — helping man recover minerals from the ocean floor by taking atomic "fingerprints" of the sea bottom.

The suggested plan is to explore likely spots with an advanced version of a device called a "Neutron Activation Analyzer," already widely used on land for a wide range of purposes — from analysis of coal to mine detection.

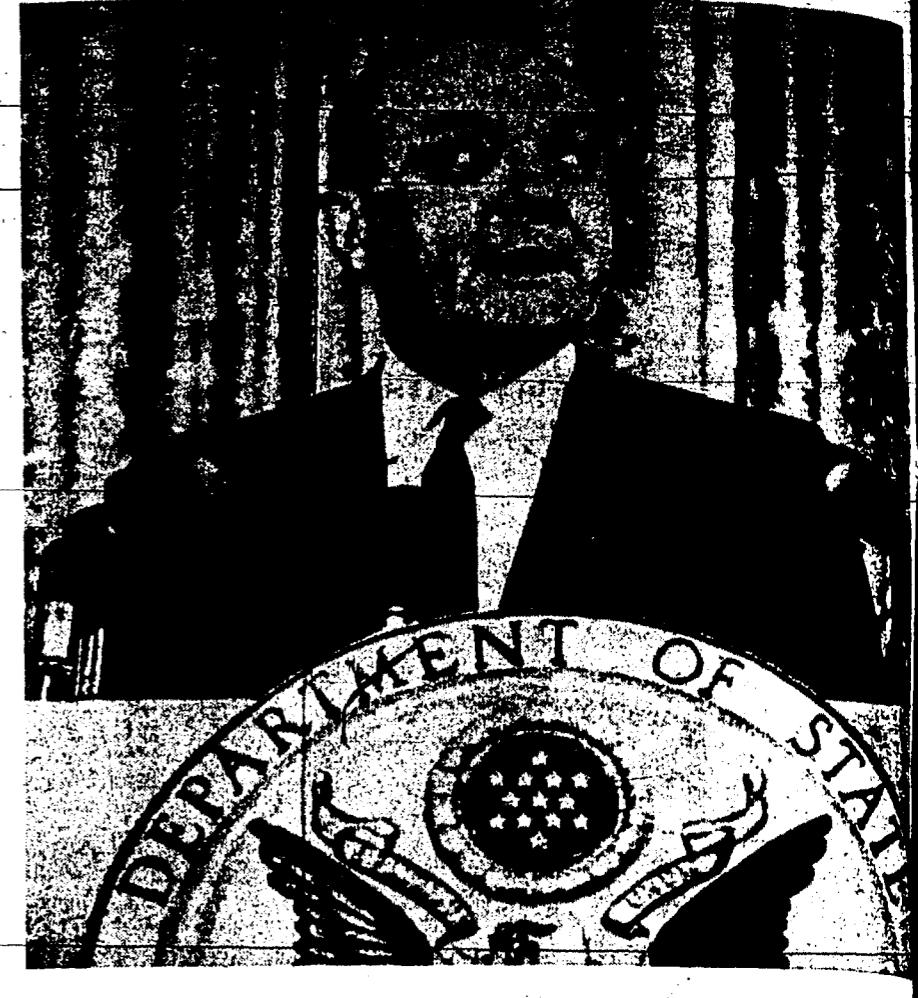

The instrument shoots neutron — atomic rays — into a sample of unknown material. These rays make the atoms inside the material radioactive, and the atoms disintegrate, emitting high-energy rays of their own.

According to the kinds of chemicals in the material, the emitted rays produce a characteristic "fingerprint" of the stuff, allowing identification.

The device is so sensitive that a wiping taken from a suspect's hand can reveal whether he has fired a gun recently.

The method has even been used to help snag moonshiners by identifying the source of soil found on confiscated stills.

Efforts to develop a special variety of the gadget for use in undersea mining explorations were outlined in a joint announcement of the Atomic Energy Commission and the Bureau of Mines.

SECRETARY OF STATE Dean Rusk warned Wednesday that "we must expect" continuing heavy casualties in Viet Nam fighting and said that U. S. losses there may increase. He told the American Foreign Service Association at a meeting in Washington, D. C., at the State Department that "the fighting through the summer may be hard." (AP wirephoto)

4-H Club Meets

Junior Foods 4-H club met at the home of Vicki Stafford Wednesday.

Mrs. Anna Davis, leader, distributed new project sewing books. After discussion, the girls were given their assignments for the next meeting. It will be held at the home of Susan Dodge June 30. Refreshments were served by the hostess.

Mrs. Ralf Lucke sang two songs, accompanied by Mrs. Lloyd Snively.

EDITOR LEAVES
MOSCOW (AP) — Vladimir Stepanov, who replaced Nikolai Khrushchev's son-in-law as editor of the Soviet government newspaper Izvestia, left the job more than a month ago, it was learned Wednesday. A new editor has not been named.

Pallbearers were George Rose, Victor Petroch, William Arkoski, Wilbur Wilson, Ben Taylor and Lee Wagner.

Concluding rites were held at Elmwood Cemetery.

Market and Financial Report

Stocks

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market closed today with one of the worst losses of the year. A renewed selling drive near close put prices down to their lows of the day. General discouragement with the outlook for stock prices, reported unwillingness of institutional investors to commit funds to foreign developments were said to be factors in the off.

Xerox slipped more than 50 cents. Down 2 points or so were Western Air Lines, General Electric, New York Central, M. U. S. Smelting and Sears, pebbuck.

Du Point lost half a dozen points.

Volume for the day was estimated at 5.9 million shares compared with 3.59 million Wednesday.

Here was the picture near the close:

Losses of most key stocks ran fractions to a point or so.

At Du Pont's decline of five points was an additional heavy drag on the averages.

Losses of about two points by General Electric and Kennecott also dampened the picture.

The market broke through the support level represented by the closing low of June 14. This marked further selling. Concern about U.S. involvement in Viet Nam was mentioned as a background factor.

The list was dull and only a little lower in early trading when stocks were dumped rapidly. A partial recovery began quickly but it backed away from some of the ground regained.

Ford, off a fraction, looked the most active stock. General Motors and Chrysler, each a point or more, also were actively traded.

STATE GOLF TOURNEY WILL OPEN FRIDAY

Youngsters Head Favorites' List For 54-Hole Test

A field that might reach 200 will vie for the Idaho State Amateur golf championship over the Rupert Country Club and Burley Municipal courses this weekend but the early favorites' list appears to preclude anyone over 25. The tournament will be based on 54 holes of medal play and include a unique qualifying round that will have the field playing nine holes at each course. The champion will be crowned Sunday at a special buffet luncheon at the Rupert Elks' Lodge, which is located on the course.

Mays Blasts 475th Homer; Giants Win

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Willie Mays hit the 475th home run of his career, matching the lifetime total of the great Stan Musial, and led the San Francisco Giants to a 6-1 victory over Pittsburgh Wednesday.

Mays and Musial are tied for second on the National League's all-time homer list, which is headed by Mel Ott with 511.

The Giant center fielder connected on his 22nd of the season in the second inning off loser Bob Veale. San Francisco added another run in the fourth, then chased the Pirate left-hander and broke it open with four more in the seventh.

Ron Herbel, who relieved Jack Sanford in the third when the Giant starter pulled groin muscle, was the winning pitcher. Bill Henry took over for Herbel in the eighth and gave up the Pittsburgh run in the ninth. Pittsburgh 000 000 001—1 10 2 San Fran. 010 100 40x—6 11 0

Veale, Sisk (7), Wood (8) and Pagliaroni; Sanford, Herbel (3), Henry (8), Linzy (9) and Hiatt, Bertell (5). Haller (8), W-Herbel (5-4). L-Veale (7-5).

Home run — San Francisco, Mays (22).

Three Homers Power Twins Past Indians

CLEVELAND (AP) — Home runs by Bob Allison, Sandy Valdespino and Jimmie Hall powered American League-leading Minnesota over Cleveland 6-3 Wednesday night, ending the Indians' winning streak at 10 games.

Former Indian Jim Grant limited Cleveland to five hits before Dick Stigman came on in the ninth to get the last two outs. The victory brought Grant's record to 7-2.

Allison homered as a pinch hitter with two on in the fourth inning, putting the Twins ahead for good. Hall connected in the second for Minnesota's first run and Valdespino hit his homer in the fifth after single by Grant.

Cleveland starter Sonny Siebert left in the third because of a stiff right shoulder and reliever Jack Spring took the loss. Minnesota 010 320 000—6 7 3 Cleveland 011 000 001—3 5 1

Grant, Stigman (9) and Zimmerman; Siebert, Spring (3), Weaver (4), McMahon (6); Stange (6), Bell (9) and Sims. W—Grant (7-2). L—Spring (0-1).

Home runs — Minnesota, Hall (13), Allison (12). Valdespino (1). Cleveland, Colavito (16).

Gebhards Promoted by Fish, Game Group; T.F. to Become District Headquarters

Biologist Stacy Gebhards has been called to Boise to handle fishery management and Twin Falls will replace Jerome as the district headquarters under a reorganization program of the Idaho Fish and Game department.

Department Director J. R. Woodworth said Wednesday Gebhards who has been district fish biologist for the past eight years, will become supervisor of fisheries throughout the state. He will work directly under Jim Simpson, chief of fisheries.

Replacing Gebhards will be Bob Bell, whose primary duties for the past two years have been reintroducing salmon and steelhead runs in the Clearwater River.

Woodworth said the shift of headquarters from Jerome to Twin Falls will be rather gradual.

"All new persons assigned to the Magic Valley area will be instructed to find housing in Twin Falls," he told the Times-News Wednesday. "We are planning to move the facilities over there but as yet we have no place selected. We don't know how soon we can complete the changeover."

He added the department feels "we can best serve the public by putting our headquarters in population centers."

So far the department has "no firm plans" for building a new headquarters in Twin Falls as it is in Lewiston and Pocatello. "We plan to rent space. If and when we build a new headquarters for that area isn't known yet," he added.

The change will not result in an increase or decrease in number of personnel.

RETZLAFF SIGNS PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Pete Retzlaff, veteran National Football League end, signed his 1965 contract Wednesday with the Philadelphia Eagles.

At the mile mark, covered in 4:11.1, Gamoudi dropped back, and Jazy and Clarke alternated in the lead until two laps from the end.

Then Jazy sprinted away and held a lead of 10 yards upon reaching at the bell final lap.

Clarke tried to rally in the last 100 yards but the French man hung on as the crowd chanted "Jazy" in his ears.

He was hit Tuesday by a suit charging failure to pay 1964 state income taxes.

Jazy and Clarke hold every world record between one mile and 10 miles. Exactly two weeks ago, Jazy lowered the mile record to 3:53.6 at Rennes. The previous week he set European records for 5,000 meters (13:34.4) and the mile (3:55.5).

The 26-year-old Frenchman announced after setting the mile record that he would spend the next two months vacationing. However, he changed those plans when he was accused of ducking Clarke during the Aussie's current European tour.

Following Wednesday's race, Jazy thanked Clarke for pushing him to the records.

"Ron knew I was faster over this distance," he said, "but he still went as fast as he could to help me lower the records. Without him to pace me around the fifth and sixth laps, I might not have done it."

Said Clarke, who will meet Jazy again in Finland next Wednesday:

"I am very pleased to have helped Michel set such fast times, but I am even more pleased to have gone so fast myself. I may have lost, but I still went much faster than ever before."

The weather was perfect for the much heralded meeting between the world's two greatest distance runners. Their fractionally clockings were truly remarkable.

The first 400 meters were covered in 61 seconds and the 800 meters mark was passed in 2:03.3, with only Gamoudi of Tunisia staying with the leaders.

President Gloots Over Tight Race In American Loop

NEW YORK (AP) — The popping of buttons you just heard were off Joe Cronin's vest. There isn't a happier man in Boston, or anywhere else, for that matter, than the president of the American League. His baseball race the kind league presidents dream of. Only three games separated the fifth place Detroit Tigers from the first place Minnesota Twins after Tuesday's games. The teams never have been this closely bunched near the top after 10 weeks of the campaign in any of Cronin's six previous years at the helm. That's why he's proud.

"The closest we had to this one was during my first year as league president," recalled Cronin. "That was in 1959, the year Chicago won the pennant. That was the last time a team won other than the New York Yankees."

New York won a squeaker last year, defeating Chicago by one game and Baltimore by two. But never, once the race got well under way, were there more than three teams in contention.

Now there are five — with the Yankees far behind. Did Cronin think the Yankees' collapse, at least up to the present time, was good or bad for the league? "Well," he said cautiously, "I don't feel it's good for one club to keep on winning year after year."

"But I am not yet ready to count the Yankees out. I feel confident they will make a move soon. They've been hit by crippling injuries. If it weren't for that, I'm sure they'd be up among the contenders."

Cronin voiced confidence that the close race would reflect at the turnstiles before long.

White Sox, Senators Trade Wins

CHICAGO (AP) — Three pitchers collaborated on a shutout and Ron Hansen drove in three runs, leading the Chicago White Sox to a 5-0 victory over Washington for a split of their twin-night doubleheader Wednesday. John Buzhardt, Gary Peters and Eddie Fisher turned in the shutout.

The Senators won the opener 3-1 as Doug Camilli drove in three runs.

The split pushed the White Sox back into sole possession of second place in the American League, one game back of front-running Minnesota.

Buzhardt, 7-1, checked the Senators on seven hits but needed Peters' relief help in the eighth. Fisher pitched the ninth.

Camilli drove in his runs in the opener with a bases-loaded single and a double, assuring Pete Richert of a 5-5 record.

Richert, holding the White Sox to six hits, including Moose Skowron's run-scoring double in the third, also singled home a run in a two-run fourth.

Maloney Stops Cards On Six Hits

CINCINNATI (AP) — Jim Maloney scattered six hits and Frank Robinson doubled, tripled and scored three runs as the Cincinnati Reds defeated the St. Louis Cardinals 6-2 Wednesday night.

Maloney, who pitched a 10-inning no-hitter last week, retired the first 14 men he faced. A single by Ken Boyer off the glove of second baseman Pete Rose with two out in the fifth was the first St. Louis hit.

The Cincinnati right-hander struck out 10 in gaining his seventh victory against three defeats.

Robinson doubled to lead off the second and scored on Don Pavletich's single. In the fourth, Robinson followed Vada Pinson's 11th home run with a triple and came home on Deron Johnson's single.

Cincinnati added three more runs in the sixth, as Robinson, who had walked, scored his third run.

Tito Francona accounted for St. Louis' runs with a pinch single in the seventh that scored Tim McCarver and Mike Shanahan.

Derrick Is Named to Cowboy Unit

Herb Derrick, Twin Falls city manager, has been appointed to the board of directors for the Magic Valley Cowboys and Maury Roth has been elected vice president.

The vacancies were created by the death of Warren Lowery, longtime member of the board, earlier this spring.

The board met Wednesday night to iron out final details for the Pioneer League opener here Saturday night against Pocatello.

It was reported the club now has spent $2,900 in repairs on Jaycees park. The full $7,000 has been paid into the league treasury and income so far from advertising, box seats and ticket sales is running slightly ahead of last year.

The board approved additional expenditures to provide policing of the stands and parking area. They will try to work in cooperation with the city police and county sheriff departments.

Aug. 4 was set aside as "Max Patkin night," during which the double-jointed baseball clown will perform at Jaycees park.

Orioles Turn Sox Errors Into 6-4 Win

BALTIMORE (AP) — The Baltimore Orioles scored three unearned runs in the fourth inning, aided by three errors, and withstood a late Boston home run barrage to defeat the Red Sox 6-4 Wednesday night.

Sailing along on a one-hitter, Oriole starter Steve Barber was shelled from the mound in the seventh on Carl Yastrzemski's solo homer and a two-run blast by Tony Conigliaro.

Bob Tillman then smacked reliever Stu Miller's first pitch for another homer, pulling Boston to within 5-4.

But Miller, who has allowed only two runs in his last 44 1-3 innings, spanning 24 appearances, held the Red Sox in check the rest of the way.

Temper Tantrum Shelves Hurler

SEATTLE (AP) — Thaddeus Asa Tillotson, 24, has a temper and an aversion to blue if it's the blue of baseball umpire's uniform. It put the Spokane right-hander on the sidelines for several weeks.

Tillotson was tossed out of the Spokane-Seattle game by Umpire Russ Goetz in the fourth inning Tuesday night after they had wrangled several innings over Goetz' strike calls.

"Dr. Kildare" (7:30 p.m., NBC) Kildare, while modern in many ways, harbors one old-fashioned prejudice. He doesn't approve of women doctors. He meets Lith McGraw, a fellow intern at Blair, and his beliefs go up in the heat generated by a pair of flashing eyes. He discovers, however, that Dr. McGraw loves surgery. To the exclusion of men.

"The Defenders" (8 p.m., CBS) The days when suffragettes chained themselves to lampposts and mobbed politicians are recalled when Preston meets an ex-suffragette who has decided that another aspect of women's rights needs to be championed. The case in point is an unwed mother who wants to bear her child without shame. The question is, will she be allowed to do so?

"Suspense Theater" (Color, 9 p.m., NBC) A racing driver is pursued by a sense of guilt that travels faster than the cars he drives. He feels responsible for his younger brother's death and goes to lengths bordering on madness to make it up to the boy's widow.

Schools Are Being Built In New Shape

By PHILIP J. KEUPER
NEW YORK (AP) — School buildings, once little more than brick boxes with windows, are blossoming into hundreds of new shapes.

There are snail-shaped schools, circular schools and six-sided schools.

In New York's Harlem, a junior high school is being built without windows. The pupils in air-conditioned classrooms will be sealed off from the sights and sounds of one of the nation's worst slums. The building will sit on 14-foot stilts with a shaded play area underneath.

The nation is at the peak of a long school-building boom, spending for construction of elementary and secondary schools rose from $111 million in 1945-46 to an estimated $3.26 billion last year.

New ideas for school design seem to have the same aim: to provide the best learning environment for the least number of dollars and still leave room for future needs.

"I think we're serving no purpose if we are building something in 1965 that could have been built in 1955," says architect Walter J. Rooney Jr., who helped design the Harlem school. "We should be building schools that will be fresh and exciting 10 years from now."

An estimated 52.9 million students were enrolled in schools and colleges last year—more than one-fourth of the U.S. population. Pupils in elementary schools alone numbered 35.4 million.

While the growth of the bumper postwar baby crop to college age promises to shift the emphasis in the next few years to college construction, huge problems still face elementary and secondary school planners. Most problems involve money. While enrollments are high and new teaching theories demand new concepts for schools, construction costs continue to rise.

With rising costs have come increasing demands to build good schools for less money.

"It's not so much a question anymore of how good a school you can build, but how much you can fit in a tight budget," says architect Robert Luchter of Garden City, N.Y.

Oil Station May Become Resort Site

By PRESTON GROVER
HASI MESSAOUD, Algeria (AP) — This is an oil-pumping station bang out in the middle of the Sahara Desert but the people here are talking half seriously of making it a tourist resort.

And they are right, but too many tourists might take away its charm.

Hassi Messaoud, 500 miles out in the desert, is one of the calmest places on earth unless you're right in the power station, where there is separation plant, where there is much noise. Even in summer it is not intolerably hot, in fall, winter and spring it is a delight.

It is sand-dune desert, and no mistake, but what has come up with the oil, from different depths, of course, is water. It has changed everything. It comes up in such quantity that there are vast areas of garden, blossoming oleander bushes and trees, swimming pools that would do credit to a big Florida hotel, green lawns and goldfish ponds.

But the silence is noticeable: no trains, no cars, no crackling motor bikes, no distant whistles, no church bells, no groups of students singing their way home. Nothing.

At present this is a man's city. There are about 5,000 French and Algerian engineers and workers, from senior geologists to sweepers, and about 40 women. Among the women are a few unattached secretaries, but most are wives.

"This is the greatest oasis in the desert," said an engineer strolling into the air-cooled bar of the S. N. Repal. This is one of the two French companies which discovered oil here, laid out the gardens and built the quarters, the movie theaters, the swimming pools, the stables, the tennis courts and the zoo.

The men don't drink much.

Americans Fighting in Viet Nam Only 12 Years After End of Korean War

SEOUL, South Korea (AP) — If we ever get this blankety-blank war over, the United States will never get involved in another blankety-blank war like it again."

Those words were spoken off the record by Gen. Mark W. Clark as the fighting in Korea drew to an end. Inasmuch as Clark is retired from public life and there is no security involved, his remark is worth repeating, now because of its irony.

Twelve years after the end of the Korean War, the United States is involved in a war in Viet Nam and there is every indication the fighting will be just as blankety-blank frustrating as it was in Korea.

Fifteen years ago, on the morning of June 25, 1950, North Korean Communist infantry, supported by Russian tanks and artillery, cracked a hole in the weak defenses along the 38th Parallel. It was the beginning of a war that lasted three years, claimed 60,000 American lives and 193,000 wounded.

But that wasn't the end. In the decade since, the American taxpayers have poured $4.5 billion in various forms of aid and assistance to the citizenry of the Republic of Korea.

Mark Clark was driven to pro-fanity over the situation in Korea for the same reason Gen. Douglas MacArthur was fired and Gen. Matthew B. Ridgway was happy to get a transfer to the North Atlantic Treaty Organization. Clark succeeded Ridgway as supreme commander of United Nations forces in Korea.

The maddening thing about commanding troops in Korea was the limitation on maneuverability. By the time Gen. Clark finally affixed his signature to an armistice, it took approval from the Pentagon to move a unit as large as a battalion along the purposely stalemates front. And everyone said the Pentagon couldn't give approval for ordering that battalion to attack without an okay from the State Department.

"If we ever get in a war here again we'll use all the weapons we've got," Clark also said off the record a decade ago.

Should the North Koreans strike again, they would get a hot reception, whether nuclear or not. There are 650,000 Republic of Korea and U.S. forces along the front today.

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Federal communications commission cleared the way Wednesday for a space age milestone — commercial operation of the Early Bird communications satellite beginning next week.

The FCC authorized the Communications Satellite Corp. to operate the satellite, hovering over the Atlantic Ocean, in conjunction with its earth sending and receiving station at Andover, Maine.

While ordering an investigation of the television rates proposed by Comsat — $5,245 an hour during peak usage hours—the FCC allowed the rates to go into effect during the early life of the satellite. It directed, in line with a Comsat suggestion, that all income from television use be set aside in a special account until the rate problem is resolved.

Beef Stew Again? Not Unless Hospital Computers Say So

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J. (AP) — A better day is dawning for hospital patients who might be willing to eat beef stew every six days but don't want to see a veal croquette with egg sauce more than once in two weeks.

Hospitals that will use computers can ensure that the veal croquettes don't show up on the menu very often, if that's what the patients want, the nation's home economists were told Tuesday.

Not only will computers enable hospitals to present menus with greater variety but the meals will be full of needed nutrition and probably cost less than they do now, said Wendell A. Clithero of International Business Machines Corp. of Chicago.

LARGEST CITY TOKYO (AP) — The Statistics Bureau estimates this world's largest city had 10,788,052 people on May 1, or 92,459 more than the April estimate.

Food Costs Down, Says Secretary

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Secretary of Agriculture Orville L. Freeman said Wednesday food expenditures will go down this year in comparison to take-home pay.

He told a news conference that while prices of some food commodities are higher currently than a year ago, over-all food expenditures in relation to income would continue to decline.

Freeman also discussed efforts of the department in eliminating racial discrimination. He said every agency in the department has responded to the call to eliminate discrimination.

He predicted farm exports in fiscal 1965 would reach a record $6.1 billion. Agriculture exports were slightly above $6 billion in fiscal 1964.

Freeman said that in 1964 an average family spent about 18.5 per cent of its income after taxes for food. He said this was an all-time low. In 1960, he said, the figure was about 20 per cent.

Freeman said the best estimates at this time indicate a further reduction to about 18.3 per cent.

"Food continues to be the best bargain available to the American consumer," he said.

Freeman said that prices for meat and vegetables are somewhat higher now than a year ago. Weather conditions have caused a temporarily higher price for some vegetables, but increased supplies have already started a down trend in retail prices, he said.

He said meat packers now reflect lower supplies as compared to a year ago.

Freeman predicted a strong demand for beef during the remainder of the year. With supplies of all beef short, he said, beef prices can be expected to be strong.

Ban Ordered For Company On Trading

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Securities and Exchange Commission Thursday slapped a 10-day ban on over-the-counter trading in capital stock of Idamont Oil and Mining Co. of Billings, Mont. The temporary suspension will run through July 2.

The commission also announced it had asked the U. S. District Court of Montana to enjoin the company from further violation of the registration requirements and anti-fraud provisions of the Federal Securities Laws.

According to the SEC complaint, Idamont and nine other defendants have been selling the company's stock, when no registration statement was filed with the commission. In addition, the public was given "untrue statements" concerning Idamont's possession of inexhaustible gold-bearing ore reserves, its development of a secret process to extract gold, and company assays showing that gold worth $2,800 or more could be extracted from each ton of ore.

The defendants failed to state that the company never has produced gold in commercial quantities, that is, "secret process" has never successfully produced gold, and that Idamont and three of the defendants were enjoined on March 30, 1964, from selling the company's stock in violation of registration and anti-fraud provisions of the securities laws.

An SEC spokesman said that the Idamont stock had been sold in Billings, Mont., Platte, S.D., Bloomfield and Birmingham, Mich., and Irvinmont, N.Y.

Communists Sentenced to Prison Terms

JAKARTA (UPI) — Thirty-six Communists have been sentenced to prison terms in connection with the fatal beating of an army officer last May in Sumatra, it was reported Wednesday.

A court in Medan, North Sumatra, sentenced 36 members of Communist peasant and youth organizations to terms ranging from 5 to 15 years, the official news agency Antara said.

The Communists were sentenced last Friday and a protest was immediately filed by the Communist Party Peasant Association, the report said.

The army and the Ministry of Plantations charged that the group clubbed a Lt. Sudjono to death when he tried to clear a state-owned rubber plantation of squatters who had illegally planted other crops.

The case became a headline issue between the army and the Communist party.

ORDINANCE NO. 1976 OF THE CITY OF TWIN FALLS, IDAHO: ADOPTING RULES AND REGULATIONS FOR THE TWIN FALLS MUNICIPAL AIRPORT AND REPEALING ORDINANCES NO. 922, 989 AND 1040.

BE IT ORDAINED BY THE BOARD OF COMMISSIONERS OF THE CITY OF TWIN FALLS, IDAHO:

Section 1. That the following rules and regulations are hereby adopted as the rules, regulations for the Twin Falls Municipal Airport:

GENERAL

1. Definitions:

a. AIRPORT: An individual, firm, partnership, corporation, company, association, joint stock association, or other governmental entity, including any representative or any of them.

b. AIRPORT: Any portion of the land and includes the boundaries lines established and refers to unimproved areas as well as surface areas.

c. AIRPORT MANAGER: The person officially designated by the governing body and includes the duty authorized representative of the Airport Manager.

d. COMMISSIONERS: The Airport Commissioners as officially designated by the City of Twin Falls, Idaho.

e. CONTROL ZONE: The area as designated by the Federal Government.

f. LIGHT PLANE: Any craft whose published gross weight is less than 12,500 pounds.

g. HEAVY PLANE: Any craft whose published gross weight exceeds 12,500 pounds.

h. AIRCRAFT FACILITY AREA: Any area upon airport property designated or intended for the landing, takeoff, taxiing, parking or other use by aircraft.

i. AIRPORT REFERENCE POINT: A point established at the geographic center of the Airport.

j. PRIVATE AIRCRAFT: An aircraft intended and used without compensation for services. Compensation includes gratuity or payment in materials or services.

k. COMMERCIAL AIRCRAFT: The aircraft used for compensation.

l. AIR-CARRIER AIRCRAFT: An aircraft officially registered to a federally recognized Air Carrier.

m. ABANDONED: Any aircraft, abandoned or left, without proper notice to the Airport Manager or permission of the Airport Manager, for more than thirty (30) days.

2. SCORE:

a. All persons having entered on the airport property shall be governed by the regulations herein prescribed and by order and instructions of the Commissioner including notices and signs of advisory and regulatory nature.

b. All rules and regulations herein prescribed are adopted by Ordinance No. 1276, dated June 21, 1965, by the Board of Commissioners of the City of Twin Falls.

c. All rules and regulations herein prescribed shall be invalid in other portions shall remain in effect to achieve the purposes hereof.

300—VEHICLES

1. VEHICLE OPERATION: No person shall operate any vehicle in an aircraft facility area without the permission of the Airport Manager. Vehicles shall be operated at such speeds as to be compatible with controls, traffic conditions, or mechanical failures.

2. REGULATIONS: Operations of vehicles will be governed by regulations of the State of Idaho and the City of Twin Falls, and by the Board of Commissioners of the City of Twin Falls.

3. RIGHT-OF-WAY: Pedestrians and aircraft shall at all times have the right-of-way over vehicular traffic.

4. REPAIRS: No person shall clean or make any repair to vehicles anywhere on the airports other than at designated shop areas except where minor repairs necessary to such motor vehicles from the Airport.

5. PARKING: No person shall park a vehicle on the airport other than in areas specifically designated. No person shall abandon any vehicle on the airport. Abandoned vehicles will be removed at owner's expense and charges incurred for storage shall be payable by the owner thereof.

6. HIRE: No person shall operate any vehicle for hire from the Airport unless such operation is with the approval of the Commissioner and the Board of Commissioners of the City of Twin Falls.

7. AIRCRAFT OPERATION:

BLINDFOLDED STATE Sen. Gordon Roseleip, R-Darlington, participated in taste test in Madison, Wis., Wednesday on legislation designed to end Wisconsin's ban on sale of colored oleomargarine. With bill's backer, Sen. Martin Schreiber, D-Milwaukee, administering test, Roseleip, long time butter substitute foe, tried oleo and proudly—and incorrectly—proclaimed it butter. (AP wirephoto)

Residents Stock up on Tax Exemption Permits; Outsiders Could Care Less

By JOE RIGERT

OLYMPIA (AP) — Oregon and Idaho residents from smaller communities are flocking across the border to buy Washington sales tax exemption permits, but the outsiders from larger cities apparently could care less.

That was the report Wednesday from the State Tax Commission after three weeks of selling $1 permits that allow outsiders to escape Washington's 4.2 per cent sales tax on items they use in their own states.

The commission said more than 2,600 permits have been sold so far, with most of them going along the Idaho border and at Walla Walla and Longview on the Oregon line.

Idaho has become so alarmed that its state tax collector, Floyd West, told of possible plans to set up border check stations to make certain Idaho residents pay a 3 per cent use tax on items purchased in Washington.

Washington Tax Commission Chairman George Kinnear said Idaho officials "certainly have the right to enforce their laws."

The Washington commission said about 1,000 permits have been issued to Idaho residents, 450 to Oregonians at Walla Walla and 677 to Oregon residents at Longview.

But only 53 have been sold to Portland residents at the Vancouver office, 50 to Canadians at Bellingham, 56 to outsiders at Seattle and two or three to Canadians at Port Angeles.

Commission spokesmen said outsiders from the smaller communities probably want to buy in the larger shopping centers like Longview and Walla Walla, but those from larger cities like Portland would have less reason to cross the border.

Canadians probably aren't buying, they said, because they must wait 48 hours in the United States before they can take anything back from Washington.

The exemption likely is attractive to Idaho residents in view of the fact that state has a 3 per cent sales tax going into effect next July 1. They can escape the levy by coming to Washington if they can avoid paying the Idaho use tax.

Power Aides Nuclear Safety

WASHINGTON (UPI) Spokesman both private and public interests sought to Congress Wednesday that power plants are safe same time they urged formation of a government insurance program.

Testified before the Joint Energy Committee is considering legislation to extend the program beyond 1967.

The program, $560 million including $60 million in insurance and $500 million in government indemnity, will be used to meet claims resulting from a serious nuclear accident.

Samuel B. Nelson, general manager of the Los Angeles Department of Water and Power, said the program was needed to proceed with the proposed Malibu nuclear
